

Top 10 Texas Hospitals with the Highest Value-Based Purchasing Scores

Top 10 Houston Hospitals with the Highest Value-Based Purchasing Scores

Rank	Surgery Center Name	Number of Procedures	Average Charge per Procedure
1	U Surgical Center	5,081	$326
2	Medical Center Endoscopy	3,878	$374
3	APMS Surgery Center	3,860	$104
4	Houston Eye Associates Surgery Center	3,212	$848
5	Memorial Hermann Surgery Center Conroe	3,108	$1,046
6	Bay Area Houston Endoscopy Center	2,839	$343
7	Creekside Surgery Center	2,826	$218
8	United Surgical Center - Southeast	2,511	$754
9	Memorial Hermann Surgery Center - Sugar Land	2,383	$686
10	Sugar Land Surgery Center	2,344	$774

Fig 1 Data taken from Definitive Healthcare's nationwide platform of intelligence on hospitals and IDNs. Value-based purchasing scores are from the CMS Quality Metrics Update in April 2019. Alanna Moriarty, Content Creator, Definitive Healthcare

Top 10 Texas Hospitals with the Highest Value-Based Purchasing Scores

Rank	Hospital Name	VBP Total Performance Score	# of Discharges
1	Rolling Plains Memorial Hospital	76.25	967
2	Hill Country Memorial Hospital	64.58	2,186
3	Hamilton General Hospital	64.33	788
4	Seton Medical Center Harker Heights	56.38	4,071
5	Mission Regional Medical Center	56	8,654
6	Childress Regional Medical Center	52	472
7	Baylor Scott & White Medical Center - Marble Falls	51.75	2,396
8	Lubbock Heart & Surgical Hospital	51.5	2,595
9	UT Health Henderson	49.83	1,523
10	Central Texas Medical Center	49.38	3,636

Fig 2 Data taken from Definitive Healthcare's nationwide platform of intelligence on hospitals and IDNs. Value-based purchasing scores are from the CMS Quality Metrics Update in April 2019. Alanna Moriarty, Content Creator, Definitive Healthcare